RESUMÉ

This paper establishes the compressibility corrections in the plane movement of an ideal fluid in a given profile. A.S. Claplighin's approximate hodographical method has been used. The relation between the velocities in the two motions as well as the contour modification have been determined.