

Bul. Ştiinţ. Univ. Baia Mare, Ser. B, Matematică-Informatică, Vol. XVII(2002), Nr. 2, 343 - 354

OPTIMIZATION PROBLEMS WITH INFINITELY MANY CONSTRAINTS

G. STILL

Abstract. The paper intends to give a survey on some important aspects of optimization problems with infinitely many constraints. We consider the structure of the problem, optimality conditions, Newton methods based on these conditions and related genericity properties.

MSC2000: 90C34, 90C36

Keywords: Semi-infinite programming, optimality conditions